C52 GETS UP AND MOVING

C52 have completed their End PJ Paralysis challenge, smashing their target of 1000 “patient days” PJ-free to get people up, dressed and moving. The project is part of a global initiative to improve patient experience, reduce length of stay and promote independence and dignity. Congratulations C52, but they won’t be going back into PJs any time soon. The initiative was strongly supported by patients, families and staff, and will continue on the ward. In fact, it’s been so successful, it’s being rolled out across WSLHD. Staff info here

SITE TOUR HQ

Hard hats, vests, boots? Check!

It’s getting busier than Central Station in the project office as site tours ramp up for new Acute Services Building.

In the last few months, we have had about 41 site tours for about 260 people as our clinical staff visit their new digs, and our activity based working transition program gets underway.

Not moving? Don’t worry - there will be opportunities for all staff to visit the building early next year.
